Importance of Home-School Partnerships

4

- Transitional phase from Primary to Secondary
- Developmental changes in adolescents
 - More self-conscious
 - Higher need to establish independence
 - More likely to be influenced by peers
 - Less communication with parents

Starting Secondary School

Why join PSG?

- To send a clear signal to your child that you care for him/her
- To gain a better understanding of what the school community is like
- To better support your child through the secondary school education journey

2024 PSG Activities

- Parent-child bonding activity
- Sharing/talk (e.g. mental well-being of teenagers)
- Support in school activities (e.g. cross country)

SEN PSG

- A Parent Support Group that was set up in 2021 to support and empower parents of children with special education needs.
- In this group, we share resources, our challenges and experiences to encourage and motivate each other along this journey.
